

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS.

- Members of the forum must comply with the Aims of STREF and abide by the Constitution.
- All participation in the meeting must be through the Chair.
- Representatives must faithfully promote the opinions and views of those they represent and must not promote their personal opinions without first declaring the fact.
- Representatives named by an organisation or group are the only people who will report for that organisation or group. The Chair and/or representative can decide if other contributions are valid or required.
- Members have to allow the views of other individuals and organisations to be aired.
